MAJOR FESTIVITIES OF KERALA

Arattu at Thiruvananthapuram

Arattu festival is the closing ceremony of the ten day festival in the Lord Padmanabha Temple at Thiruvananthapuram. There are two such festivals every year. One takes place in the Malayalam month of Thulam (October-November) and the other in Meenam (March-April). The Arattu is a ceremonial procession of the Lord at the close of the ten day festival. The previous night, there is a procession called pallivetta inside the fort encircling the temple.

On the day of the Arattu, His Highness the Ex-Maharaja enters the corridor of the temple, and after some rituals, the procession takes out through the eastern gate with the accompaniment of nagaswaram, drum etc. His Highness with sword in hand and escorted by armed guards, infantry, mounted police officers etc. leads the procession to the Sanghumugham Beach. A caparisoned elephant goes in front with drum on its back, that is beaten to indicate that the God is coming in procession. Six more caparisoned elephants follow. The procession leaves the temple gate at about 5 p.m. and takes about an hour to reach the seashore. As the procession leaves the ramparts of the fort, a salute of 21 guns is made. On reaching the beach the ceremonial bath is taken in the sea.

Aranmula Uthrittathi

The festival is associated with the Parthasarathy Temple, Aranmula. A snake boat carnival is held on the river Pamba annually at Aranmula on the day of Uthrittathi asterism in Chingam (August - September) in connection with the Onam festival to commemorate the crossing of the river by Lord Krishna on that day. The deity is supposed to be in all the boats that take part in the carnival and all of them are expected to arrive at their destinations simultaneously. The snake boats at the Aranmula regatta present an enchanting as well as an imposing spectacle. The boats resemble snakes with their hoods raised.

Makara Vilakku at Sabarimala

Sabarimala, the Shrine of Lord Ayyappa, is one of the most famous pilgrim centres in the State, situated in the wilderness of Western Ghats, accessible by foot from Pamba in Pathanamthitta District, on a hard trek along harsh pathways through the mountain/dense forest. Pilgrimage to Sabarimala cannot be undertaken at all seasons because it requires long preparations and fixed timings. A devotee who wishes to perform the pilgrimage should undergo 41 days penance.

The most important festival of the temple is the 'Makaravilakku', which falls on 14th of January every year, marked by the appearance of a spontaneous phenomenon of holy light in the wilds, indicating the presence of God. This day synchronises with the day of Sankramom (crossing of sun from Dakshinayana to Uttarayana). Another important feature of the pilgrimage is that the Hindu pilgrims offer worship at the shrine of Vavar (a shrine near the temple in the name of Vavar, a Muslim believed to be a close associate of Lord Ayyappa).

Guruvayoor Festivals

One of the famous temples in India, Guruvayoor is situated in an out of the way village in Chavakkad Taluk, though it draws a vast concourse of pilgrims from every part of the country. Devotees are thronging to this temple not to see and appreciate the variety of its structural patterns or to revel in the festivals celebrated there, but only to feel the air of benediction that pervades this famous shrine of Guruvayoorappan and to invoke his blessings.

The important religious festivals celebrated in this temple are:

1. Ashtami Rohini in Chingam (August-September).
2. Sukla Paksha Ekadasi in Vrischikam (November-December).
3. Kuchela Day in Dhanu (December-January) the day on which Kuchela visited Sree Krishna with beaten rice.
4. Dhawaja Prathishta Day (Erection of flag staff in the temple) on Makayiram Asterism in Makaram (January-February).

5. Vishukkani in Medam (April).
6. The ten days Utsavam commencing from Pooyam Asterism in Kumbham (February-March).

Thrissur Pooram

The most colourful temple festival of Kerala, Thrissur Pooram attracts large masses of devotees and spectators from all parts of the State and even outside.

Celebrated in Medam (April-May) it consists of processions of richly caparisoned elephants from various neighbouring temples to the Vadakunnatha temple, Thrissur. This festival was introduced by Sakthan Thampuran, the Maharaja of erstwhile Kochi State. The Pooram festival is also well-known for the magnificent display of fireworks. It is celebrated by two rival groups representing the two divisions of Thrissur Paramakkavu and Thiruvambadi vying with each other in making the display of fireworks grander and more colourful. Each group is allowed to display a maximum of fifteen elephants and all efforts are made by each party to secure the best elephants in South India and the most artistic parasols, which are raised on the elephants during the display. The commissioning of elephants and parasols is done in utmost secrecy by each party to excel the other. Commencing in the early hours of the morning, the celebrations last till the break of dawn, the next day.

Of the rival groups participating in the Pooram, the most important ones are those from Paramakkavu and Thiruvambadi. At the close of the Pooram, both these groups enter the temple through the western gate and come out through the southern gate to array themselves, face to face, one from the round and other from the Municipal Office road. This spectacle is highly enchanting. Although this grand festival is known as Thrissur Pooram, it is in fact the conclusion of the eight day Utsavam of nine temples.

The procession of the Thiruvambadi Pooram to the grounds of Vadakkunnatha Temple and back is not only important, but also quite enlivening. The marvellous as well as magical effect of the Panchavadyam, a combination of five percussion and wind instruments, is to be felt and enjoyed.

Bharananganam Feast

Bharananganam, a small village town in Meenachil Taluk of Kottayam District, has been famous for long as one of the hallowed places in Kerala. It is about 14 miles from the Ettumanoor Railway Station. Bharananganam has always been a refuge of the afflicted and the miserable, as well as of the faithful. It is here that the famous St. Mary's Forane Church, one of the oldest churches in Kerala dedicated to the Holy Mother, stands, attracting thousands of pilgrims from all over the country. The important annual festivals of this church are the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, celebrated on the 9th of November and the Feast of St. Sebastian on the 20th of January.

Edappally Perunal

Every year, 'Forty hour devotion' marks the commencement of the festival at St. George Church, Edappally, in the outskirts of Kochi city. The festival begins on the 23rd of April with solemn High Mass and Litany. On the 25th flag is hoisted solemnly and ceremoniously.

Edathua Festival

The St. George's Church at Edathua stands on the bank of the river Pampa, sixteen miles south-east of Alappuzha. This Church is famous for the Feast of St. George celebrated every year in the month of Medam (April-May). It takes place from 27th April till 7th May. Though the festival lasts for 11 days, only last couple of days carry all the aspects of a major festival. Hence calendars reckon the 6th of May as the Feast Day.

Malayattur Feast

St. Thomas Shrine at Malayattur, a village about six miles to the north of Kaladi in Ernakulam District, is believed to be one of the ancient catholic shrines in the northern part of the State. The chief festival at the Shrine is on second Sunday after the Vernal Equinox (March 21). The Feast, therefore, falls generally in the month of April or at times in the last week of March. The Octave is celebrated on the following Sunday. The pilgrims have to climb a hill nearly 2000 feet high and on top of it is the Church.

Chandanakuda Mahotsavam in Beemapalli

The Holy Shrine of Beema Beevi, more popularly known as Beemapalli, which is held sacred by Muslims as well as others, is situated about five kilometres south-west of the Trivandrum Central Railway Station, on the beach road leading to Poonthura via Valiyathura. Beemapalli is a shrine dedicated to the hallowed memory of Beema Beevi, a pious and devoted Muslim lady gifted with divine powers. It is one of the most distinguished Mosques in Kerala, which draws large gatherings. Pilgrims of all ages from all communities can be seen heading towards the shrine all along the routes, during this festival.

Festival at Cheraman Juma Masjid, Kodungalloor

This is the first Juma Masjid in India and is situated in the Methala Village of Kodungalloor Taluk, hardly 20 kilometre from Irinjalakuda Railway Station. According to the legend, Cheraman Perumal went on a pilgrimage to Arabia where he met Prophet Mohammed at Jeddah and embraced Islam and accepted the name Thajuddin.

Malappuram Nercha

Years ago, one of the female dependants of Para Nambisan, a petty chieftain of Malappuram, was taken away by the local Muslims as a slave. Para Nambisan who could not bear this ignominy wanted to wreak vengeance upon the culprits. He therefore, sent for Marakkar, a leader of the local Muslims, causing death of so many on both sides. In memory of the devoted Muslim leaders who gave up their lives during the fight, a Nercha is conducted every year, either in February or in March, in the Mosque at Malappuram.
